

White Swan*Meta has re-named itself “White Swan Brands”. This best describes who they are...a collection of brands designed to meet the uniform needs of healthcare and food service professionals. The White Swan name has been in the uniform market since 1916 and they did not want to lose that heritage. However, they are also positioning themselves for the future to bring products to uniform retailers under their own brands WS Gear Scrubs, Meta Labwear, and Five Star Chef Apparel and through licensed brands like Jockey Scrubs and Crocs. Under their newly named scrub brand of WS GEAR, you will see a combination of established programs like Fundamentals as well as exciting new offerings for the Summer 2010 season including Fusion...an economical tri-blend alternative. White Swan Brands is committed to “Bringing it all to you!!!” Call for more information! 800-888-3834.

Jockey™ Scrubs adds New Spring/Summer Prints (and hot deals!)

Designed with summer in mind, five cool, comfortable, fresh stretch prints in two new figure flattering styles have been added to JockeyScrubs. The tri-blend knit stretch fabric provides maximum comfort, ease of movement and breathability in a colorful array of solids and prints. New colors, styles, and expanded sizes have been added in both the jersey knit and tri-blend woven fabrications. Mixing and matching for instant eye-appeal is a breeze.
